

TITLE:

Profile of the Contributors

AUTHOR(S):

CITATION:

Profile of the Contributors. Lifelong education and libraries 2004, 4: 173-174

ISSUE DATE:

2004-03

URL:

<http://hdl.handle.net/2433/43684>

RIGHT:

Profile of the Contributors

Konrad Umlauf is professor, Institute for library and information science, Humboldt University, Berlin. He has published many works on library management, especially on acquisition management, and is contributor for the 2003 edition of the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science.

Peter Griffin is founder and former president of National Union of Teachers in United Kingdom, and now the honorable president of Governors Wales. He has been so active and influential in the educational reforms.

Kim Sinil is professor of Education, Seoul National University. He has written many books on lifelong education, and has been very active in the international organizations. Now he is president of the East Asian Forum of Adult Education.

Choi Don Min is a research fellow, Korean Educational Development Institute. He is also director of the Research Center of Lifelong Learning of KEDI, working for the lifelong education policy in Korean context.

Gu Zhen-Yu is a chief project officer in the Institute of Scientific and Technical Information of Shanghai. He is engaged in retrieving and analyzing scientific and technical information, and is interested in a digital aspect of library practices.

Lin He is a senior consultant in the Institute of Scientific and Technical Information of Shanghai. He has abundant experiences in developing information resources, and played a key role in several projects of industrial studies and in consulting services for local authorities and companies and so on.

Peter Vodosek is professor of library science, Hochschule der Medien/University of Applied Sciences, Stuttgart (Germany). He has published many works on German library history. He is a member of IFLA Library History Section, Wolfenbuetteler Arbeitskreis für Bibliotheks-, Buch- und Mediengeschichte, Historische Kommission des Boersenvereins des deutschen Buchhandels, Dansk Bibliotekshistorisk Selskab, and also a member of the Editorial Committees of Library History and Bibliothek. Forschung & Praxis.

Heribert Hinzen is director of the Institute for International Cooperation of the German Adult Education Association (IIZ/DVV) in Bonn. He is also the editor of both journals, Adult Education and Development and International Perspectives in Adult Education. He is also active in the German UNESCO Commission and so on.

Kawasaki Yoshitaka is professor of library and information science, Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University. He has published many articles and monographs on American library history and intellectual freedom in libraries. He is now a member of the Editorial Committee of IFLA Journal.